Biographie de l'auteur Allan Tpper is a consultant, multi-title author, tech journalist, translator, and language activist who has been working with professional video since the early eighties. Since 1994, Tpper has been consulting both end-users and manufacturers through his local company. Via TecnoTur, Tpper has been giving video tech seminars in several South Florida universities and training centers, and in a half dozen Latin American countries, in their native language. Tpper has been a frequent radio/TV guest on several South Florida, Guatemalan, and Venezuelan radio and TV stations. As a certified ATA (American Translators Association) translator, Tpper has translated and localized dozens of advertisements, catalogs, software, and technical manuals for the Spanish and Latin American markets. He has also written contracted White Papers for manufacturers. Over the past 18 years, Tppers articles have been published or quoted in more than a dozen magazines, newspapers, and electronic media in Latin America. Since 2008, Allan Tppers articles have been published frequently in English in ProVideo Coalition magazine.
